news from St. James's

Jan/Feb 2019

From the Rector's Desk

Dear Friends,

This Sunday morning (12/16), as is my habit while preparing to go to church, I checked my email. You never know when there will be a sick acolyte or other "emergency" that I will need to address once at St. James's. Among the myriad of Christmas junk email (and a few others) was an article from The New York Times sent to me by parishioner Chuck Kinney, and later recommended by Borden Painter. The article, written by Laura Turner, was entitled, "Internet Church Isn't Really Church," and subtitled, "Showing up in person is exhausting, especially compared with live-streaming." But being together is the whole point. The premise of the article is that in a world where nearly everything can be experienced from the comfort of your home or office via whatever glowing screen you choose to stare at, showing up, when possible, is the better option.

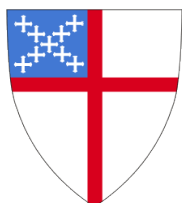

On any given Sunday, church services around the world are available through streaming on the internet. Even at St. James's you can listen to the latest sermons (for better or for worse) on your computer. This article caused me to ask the question of myself: If I wasn't paid to be there, would I go to church? The answer is a resounding, yes! Question 2: Why?

Church has always been a multi-faceted experience for me. As a child, it is what we did together as a family, and a place to see friends. As an adult, these two things are still a constant but with the added realities of a deep need to help others, support others, and receive support, while expressing a profound sense of gratitude to the God who made it all possible. It is also very important for me to continue to learn through the life of Jesus how we are called to live our lives when we are at our best – what is important and what is not.

I have always been "a community kind of guy." As an extrovert, I find energy in experiencing the world and my faith with and through others. I believe there is a reason why Jesus spent his entire ministry gathering others to work with him and later expand his work into the wider world.

I often hear people say they wish their children had a church/faith so that they would have something to fall back on when the eventual troubles and heartaches of life come their way. While I agree this is important, it is only a small part of the equation. I not only want to be supported in the hard times, I also want to rejoice with others in the joys of life; helping me live more fully into who it is God created us to be. As a father, a husband, and a friend, I want this for those whom I love, and, for that matter, for folks I have never met.

To know that you are loved by God and a wider community is a powerful thing. In fact, it is life changing.

From the Assistant Rector

FAITH and spirituality don't permeate our culture the way they once did, bending culture to the rhythms and seasons of church life, and because of this change, it's much easier than it used to be to relegate faith to the time we spend at church. At the same time, we make our way through the busyness of our days, feeling restless, anxious, wondering what's missing from our lives, and yet the prayer and spiritual practices we think might help seem like one more thing we have to do. And when we approach our spiritual lives this way, it rarely goes well.

Believe me, I've learned this the hard way, when I've tried to layer all the ways I think I should be praying over my existing life. Spoiler alert: It ends in disaster. I sometimes don't even make it back for a second day of my new practice, and what I'm left with is not peace, but frustration with myself and even more restlessness.

So here it is: As your priest, I am giving you explicit permission not to start a new spiritual practice as your New Years Resolution. In fact, I actually advise you against it. Because the search for deeper meaning and greater peace in your days simply can't start with a long list of new things you have to do or accomplish. It will fizzle just as quickly as those resolutions about dieting or exercise.

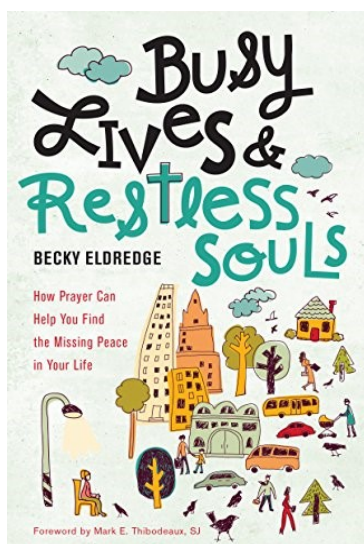

Instead, I'm inviting you to start the New Year with a conversation, specifically a conversation about the busyness and the restlessness themselves.

Because within that feeling of restlessness lies something unexpected. As Becky Eldredge writes in Busy Lives and Restless Souls, "Naming these longings and yearnings is a first step we can take in acknowledging that God is already at work within us and in our lives."

Once we recognize that God is already in the restlessness and present among the busyness, we can start to work within our lives instead of against our lives to experience the presence and peace of God.

I hope you will join me the first three Sundays in January after the 9:30 service to discuss our busy lives and restless souls. We will use Eldredge's book as a guide, but the real text will be our lives, and you are welcome to join the conversation even if you haven't read a page of the book. The book is offered as a tool, not one more thing to do!

I look forward to starting the year together exploring how God is already present in our lives, and how we can uncover that together in the new year.

With love and blessings for the new year,

Charlotte +

Vestry Corner

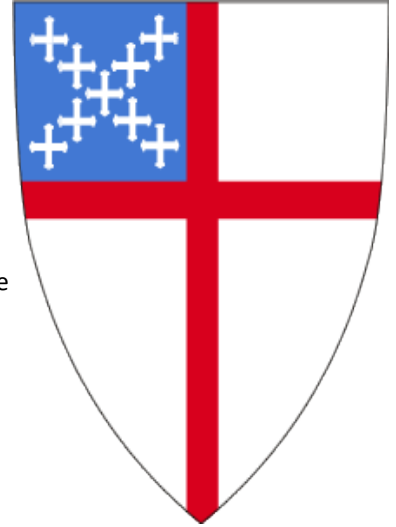

From the Senior Warden

As 2018 comes to a close, I thought I would provide an update on the Capital Campaign. Last year, parishioners made pledges to the campaign which provided for the major building investments of the campaign - rebuilding the organ, painting of the church, renovations of the parish hall, kitchen, parish room kitchen, and the installation of a handicapped accessible bathroom near the church office. Those projects have allowed both the St. James's and the greater Hartford communities to enjoy our facilities and participate in our ministries.

Total pledges for the campaign were $905,000. Given the magnitude of the work and the funds needed to pay for it, parishioners had the option of fulfilling their pledge over a period of up to three years. As of now, slightly more than $600,000 in pledges have been received by the church. We thank every one for their generous support of the campaign. Recently, campaign pledge payments slowed down to a rate lower than expected based on parishioners plans when pledges were made. We understand that situations may change over time and that can affect pledge payments.

If you have questions about your campaign pledge, please let me know.

From the Organist & Choirmaster

Dear Parishioners,
Beginning with the inaugural 2017/2018 season, 'Concerts at St James's' offered great performances from choirs, orchestras and chamber musicians, including performances of the Duruflé Requiem, Mozart Requiem, and the inaugural recital of our new Steinway grand piano.

Now in its second season, our concert series continued with a sprightly performance of Handel's Messiah by Connecticut Choral Artists (CONCORA) on November 30. The biggest challenge of any public offering, especially one that requires a large audience to congregate at a specific time and place, is how to publicize it in a broad yet economical manner. Presenting the Vienna Boys Choir has given us a great opportunity to begin building the necessary infrastructure for publicity and ticketing. We are fortunate that Sarah Johnston has agreed to serve as a consultant for Concerts at St James's. Together, we have set up a ticketing platform on Eventbrite.com, and are beginning to build a mailing list and reciprocal advertising relationships with over one dozen area arts organizations. This newly built infrastructure will serve as a future conduit to audiences and patrons.

For our part, St. James's will present four concerts on the series, beginning this winter:

Sunday, February 24 @4pm – Alan Murchie (pianist) returns in collaboration with Boston Symphony Cellist Owen Young. Tickets $10-$20 at door – Free admission for students.

Cellist Owen Young joined the BSO in August 1991. A frequent collaborator in chamber music concerts and festivals, he has also appeared as concerto soloist with numerous orchestras. He has performed in the Tanglewood, Aspen, Banff, Davos, Sunflower, Gateway, Brevard, and St. Barth's music festivals and is a founding member of the innovative chamber ensemble Innuendo. Mr. Young's performances have been broadcast on National Public Radio, WQED in Pittsburgh, WITF in Harrisburg, and WGBH in Boston. He has performed frequently with singer/songwriter James Taylor, including the nationally televised concert "James Taylor Live at the Beacon Theatre" in New York City. Mr. Young was formerly on the faculties of the Boston Conservatory, the New England Conservatory Extension Division, and the Longy School of Music; is currently on the faculty of Berklee College of Music; and is active in Project STEP (String Training and Education Program for students of color).

Saturday, March 9 @7pm – 'Hear My Prayer' – Accompanied by members of the Hartford Symphony Orchestra, St. James's Choir sings an all-Mendelssohn concert, featuring anthems, liturgical music, great choruses, and a string symphony. Free admission.

Tuesday, April 2 @7pm – The Vienna Boys Choir - Don't miss the Vienna Boys Choir's only Connecticut appearance on their Spring 2019 tour! This performance in West Hartford is a rare opportunity to hear the famed choir sing in the acoustic of a traditional church setting. Tickets: Eventbrite.com.

Friday, May 31 @7.30pm – Rededicatory Organ Concert with Vaughn Mauren, organist – This concert was rescheduled from May 2018. Vaughn Mauren gives the rededicatory recital of the rebuilt and enlarged 1962 Austin Organ at St. James's. This concert marks the end of a three-year project to finish the organ and restore it to full working order. The resulting instrument has a notably richer, fuller sound and a wide range of colors. Free admission.

Please help us spread the word about our concert series!

NOTE: Childcare can be provided if there is a demand. Teens or adults may wish to consider donating their time in the nursery on Monday so others can participate in scheduled activities. Please call the parish office, 860-521-9620, if you would like to utilize this service or help with childcare yourself.

Operation Fuel 2019

January and February

IMAGINE living without heat or electricity year-round because you couldn't afford this basic necessity. For families living close to the margin of self-sufficiency, a medical bill, a cold spell or other unexpected expense can mean the difference between paying a heating or utility bill and meeting other basic needs such as groceries and rent.

Operation Fuel is a private, nonprofit organization that provides emergency energy assistance to state residents who cannot pay their utility bills and do not qualify for government assistance, or have exhausted their benefits and have nowhere else to turn.

One in five Connecticut households cannot afford energy, but the other four can change that! You can be part of the change; give the gift of heat and light. Please make your check payable to St. James's Church, with the notation "Operation Fuel" on the memo line. Thank you for your warm-hearted response to this much appreciated mission project.

Thank You!

ABIG thank you to all who participated in the many mission projects and fundraising events that went on during the Advent season! The Angel Tree project was another huge success! All tags and wings were taken and gifts were delivered to the children and families of incarcerated loved ones; toys from our toy collection were delivered to Grace Episcopal Church in Hartford for families in need; the poinsettia plant sale brought in monies in support of the St. James's Feeding Program; and our annual Christmas tree and wreath sale was, once again, a sold-out success. Thank you for your help and generosity!

Food Pantry Ongoing Needs

The WH Food Pantry is in most need of the following items: Pasta and sauce, apple sauce, canned fruit, canned baked beans, canned pasta (spaghettios), rice, canned tuna, and peanut butter. Place donations at any of the entrances to the building. Please check expiration dates!

BOOK STUDY: Busy Lives and Restless Souls

If you've already figured out your life and feel totally complete, then this book may not be for you. But if you are like the rest of us, every day presents a mountain of to-do items, jobs to go to, errands to run, projects to complete, meals to cook, children to raise... You forge ahead and get it done, but you know that things aren't as they should be. Spiritual director and writer Becky Eldredge has felt that same longing, and she knows what people are missing—a relationship with God through prayer. For all who sense that there is a missing peace in their lives, Busy Lives & Restless Souls will help them find it—right where they are. We'll read the book and meet for discussion on January 6, 13 and 20.

FEBRUARY 3, 10, 17 and 24

INQUIRER'S CLASS: EpiscoMentals

Have you ever wondered why we do the things we do at St. James's and where that comes from? Take some time during the month of February to learn about the fundamentals of our Episcopal tradition. These sessions are great for people who are new to the Episcopal Church, and for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of Episcopal beliefs and practices.

Adults who wish to be confirmed, received into the Episcopal Church or who wish to reaffirm their faith at Bishop Laura Ahrens's visitation on June 2, should plan to attend all four EpiscoMentals sessions. In addition, please contact Bob or Charlotte for more information on these sacramental rites.

February 3—Borden Painter on Church History

February 10—Bob Hooper on The Book of Common Prayer and Liturgy

February 17—Charlotte LaForest on Spirituality in the Anglican Tradition

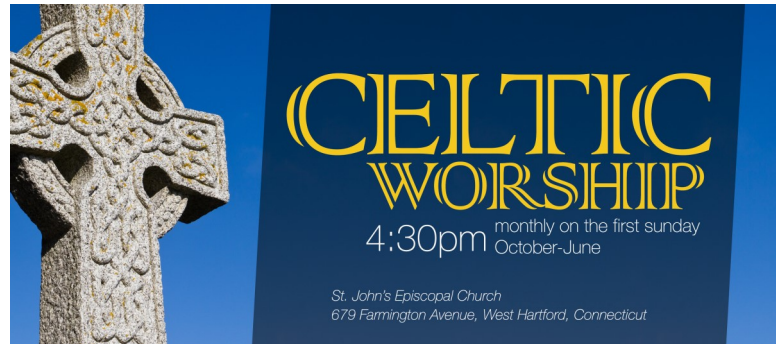

February 24—Bob Hooper on The Church and the World

Coffee and refreshments will be served. Regular coffee hour held in the parish hall.

Men's Discussion Group

Second and Fourth Saturdays

ALL men of the parish and guests are invited to a discussion group on Saturdays, January 12 and 26; February 9 and 23 beginning at 8:00am in the parish room. Various religious topics are presented and refreshments are provided.

Celtic Worship

Sundays, January 6 and February 3

EXPERIENCE worship in the Celtic tradition on Sundays, January 6 and February 3 at 4:30pm at St. John's Church in West Hartford. Chant, silence, prayer, and music from around the world are incorporated into the service. Celtic Worship is offered every first Sunday of the month from October through June. We hope that you will join us!

Fourth Fridays Family Night

January 25 and February 22 at 5:30pm

OUR Family Nights will continue in the new year every fourth Friday beginning January 25! Sometimes it's hard to find something fun to do with the kids during the winter, so that's why Fourth Friday Family Nights is a perfect solution. We'll enjoy a pizza dinner and show a child-friendly movie for the kids afterwards in the youth room. Adults can BYOB, and feel free to bring a side dish of your choice. It's a great opportunity to get together with church friends and let the kids get to know each other better, too. We ask for a donation of approximately $5-10 per family to cover the pizza costs. If you'd like to attend, please email Abby.Williamson@gmail.com or Kerriraissian@gmail.com and we can put you on our Evite list to RSVP.

Saturday, January 26 at 5:30pm
