

the OPEN DOOR

news from St. James's

From the Rector's Desk

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Each and every month at our vestry meetings we take some time to do a short bible study/reflection. For the past two months the idea of "hope" has been central to the conversation. During the season of Advent, Tim led a discussion focusing on "The Hope of Advent." Hope has always played a huge part in the Christian lexicon; we are a people of hope. The Incarnation and Resurrection are the two central events in Christian history and the foundation of Christian theology and spirituality. Both of these are the source of Christian Hope.

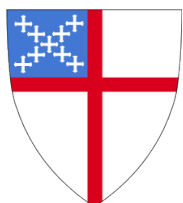

Today, as we reflect on 2020 and look forward to a new day in 2021, we lean into the reality of the hope that things will get back to "normal" sooner than later. I look forward to a day when we can once again gather together in worship and fellowship. I look forward to a time when I can gather friends and family together at the dinner table. I look forward to a day when I will watch the news and the COVID death count is not the lead story – or better yet, a story at all. There are many small things I look forward to doing again but these three, I think, are at the top of my list.

The only way I am able to look forward to these things, while I still grieve the losses, is I have both faith and hope in the future, and the guidance God provides us through the darkest of days and into the light. We have a ways to go and, in the meantime, we need to be safe. But I have to say it is nice to see a future before us where light and life are the themes of the day, not death and darkness.

To me this feels like the beginning of a resurrective moment, and it is only possible through the hard work and brilliant minds of many doctors and scientists. This is where the incarnation comes in. We are, each and every one of us, illuminated by the spark of the Spirit of God and come to the table with what we have to offer. And I thank God for those who are able to guide us into this new day.

Again, I look forward with tremendous gratitude to the day that we will once again gather together; and implore all of you to please continue to be safe and careful until that day comes. We have already lost so much and so many.

So, until then in Hope,

To Learn, Live and Teach the Values of the Gospel of Jesus Christ

Confirmation 2020/2021

DEAR all,
Happy Epiphany and New Year to everyone!

I have been enjoying the season of Advent. We have started weekly Morning Prayer every Wednesday at 8am on Zoom! We have a good and faithful contingent that “comes out” for Morning Prayer each week. All are most welcome to join! The link can be found on the website under the category “Discipleship” – click the header “Morning Prayer Via Zoom.” This will continue in the New Year beginning Wednesday, January 6.

Our 3-part Advent series has been a great joy. Entitled “The Hope of Advent,” the series has looked at the appointed Advent readings to explore our hope in God and Christ during these challenging times. We have talked about apocalyptic literature, wilderness narratives and more!

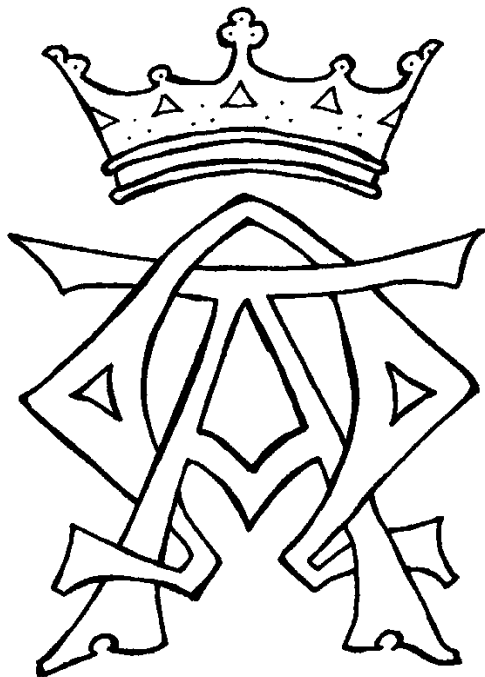

We had our seventh Confirmation class on December 13. I have been deeply impressed by the perceptive and thoughtful questions the students are asking – about God, about Jesus, about themselves. They are dealing with the stresses of Covid with honesty and compassion.

I also really enjoyed getting to meet so many of you at the Tree Sale! This was the first time I conversed with many of you in person and it was very encouraging to me. I look forward to the time where I will be able to talk with more of you like this.

Please reach out to me anytime.

In Christ,

Tim

Bring a Friend to Church 2

From the Organist & Choirmaster

DEAR Parishioners,

As we come to the end of an extraordinary year, it is time to reflect on the past 12 months and highlight how we have been fortunate in the face of crisis.

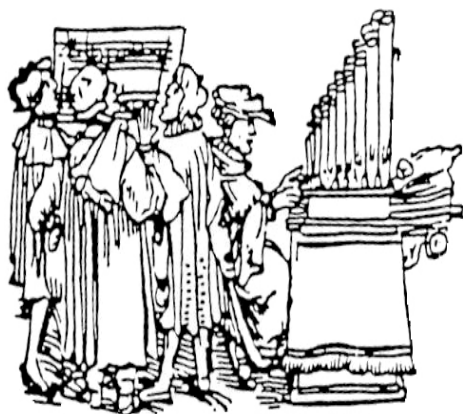

This period of history will be known as a pivot point. So much of what we did and said - our interactions with others - changed for a time. There were and are moments of shock, surprise, exasperation, sadness, hope, and feelings of overload. The boredom we feel at any given moment is contrasted with a sense that time has leaped forward, dragging us behind it and into a new era. Seismic societal changes made before we could catch our breath.

Many of these changes are good. No, they are great. The internet was already a mind-boggling asset to humanity, but this year it became truly necessary as we harnessed its power to broadcast pre-recorded services and livestream Sunday morning right into your home. Never could the founding members of our parish imagine such possibility.

The music program experienced another shock to the system: no singing until further notice. Perhaps this was the most challenging adjustment. Our choir has been adjourned since March and temporarily replaced with a handbell program. No one could have imagined that one either. But it has truly been great. Rehearsals are fun and we cherish the opportunity to spend some time together each week, making music as a group.

As I write this, the very first public vaccinations are taking place and there is great hope for our future. The new year will bring a slow but steady return to normalcy. We will have the freedom to do what we like and see our friends wherever and whenever we want. And we will begin to gather indoors for church, singing hymns and anthems that lift our spirits and inspire us for the week ahead. It will be a renaissance of ordinary life. But we will not lose the lessons and gifts of this strange time; we will only be stronger for having lived through it.

I wish all of you a happy Christmas and New Year. Take care of yourselves and others as we enter the home stretch.

KFC (Kids for Christ) Sundays at 10:30am

KFC (Kids for Christ) is meeting on the Zoom platform at 10:30 in the morning on Sundays during this time of physical separation. A few days before, a KFC Announcement goes out with a link to the Zoom format and more information. If you are not receiving this announcement, please email me and I will get you added to the list. My email: education@stjameswh.org.

Bring a Friend to Church 4

WHEN I write my newsletters, I always start by looking at the newsletters of years past. Last year in the January/February 2020 newsletter, I talked about how important it is to come to church and Sunday school, even when it is cold and dark outside. "Make church a priority," I said. As we head into 2021, I am incredibly thankful that so many of you do make church a priority for your children and families. In fact, one silver lining in the Covid Pandemic is that Sunday school doesn't require getting dressed and out of the house in the morning. All you have to do is join a Zoom link and that is that. For many children of the parish, joining our KFC-to-go has been a fun and educational experience. For that I am extremely grateful.

For something new in 2021, I am planning to look at the Lord's Prayer with our youngest members. What are we saying in the Lord's Prayer? Why is it important? How can I pray it myself? I am still researching exactly how I am going to do this via Zoom, but I am sure I will find a way to achieve it without much problem. There are so many resources online now. Pray for me as I continue to figure this out.

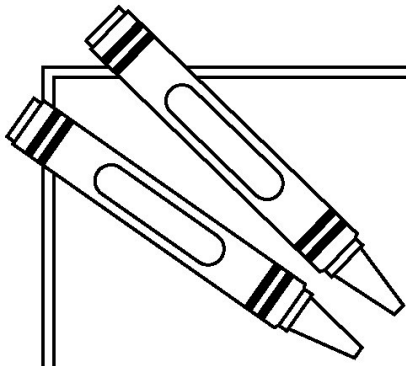

As I often say in my newsletter, I feel incredibly fortunate to get to do the work of being the Director of Family Ministries at St. James's. I love getting to know the children and I love getting to watch them grow into spiritual young people. I see my job as the Director of Family Ministries as twofold: First, I see my job as helping the children of this parish develop their spiritual lives. This involves helping them to have some useful tools in their spiritual toolbox. Included in these toolboxes are things like the Lord's Prayer, knowing how to say a prayer of thanksgiving and forgiveness.

The second part of my job is the education part. I try to teach the children the basic stories of The Bible, so that when they see these themes in literature, they will recognize them. That is where you parents and grandparents come in. For instance, if you are reading that wonderful tale of The Velveteen Rabbit with your child, use that as an opportunity to discuss what it means to be really loved by your Creator. If you are watching a film with a biblical reference in it, explore it! While watching Spiderman with a bunch of middle school students, one student shared that when Spiderman was tempted by the Green Lantern it was just like when Jesus was tempted in the wilderness! Helping your children to make these connections with The Bible and modern stories will help them to see the relevance of The Bible in their lives and help them to be better students.

So, in these weeks of thinking about New Year's resolutions, I would like to suggest one to consider: As parents, let's try to help our children to build up those "Spiritual Toolboxes." Let's work with them to grow to be spiritually mature young people who have a basic knowledge of Bible stories. How can that be done? One way is to come to church and Sunday school with your children. For now, that is done virtually. Hopefully, before too long, we will be able to gather in person. Until then, join us on Sunday morning for the Livestreaming service at 9:30 a.m. and KFC-to-go at 10:30. Then, talk with your kids about what they learned. Make church a priority for you and your children. You will be glad you did.

Your sister in Christ,

The Star that Led to the King

The wise men from the East saw a bright star. They followed it to the place where the child who would be King of the Jews was born. When they went inside, they saw baby Jesus with His mother, Mary. They bowed down and worshiped Him. (Read Matthew 2:1-11.)

Help the wise men follow the star ✧ path that leads to baby Jesus.

Mission

St. James's Cares

Jesus said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep" - John 21:17.

WITH 1 in every 6 households currently suffering from food insecurity – for children the statistics are far worse – we at St. James's feel called to do our part to address this suffering. It is impossible to feed folks spiritually without considering their physical hunger as well.

"St. James's Cares" feeding program has now expanded to provide 28 full dinners (protein, starch, vegetables, salad, and dessert) for 4 each week to families struggling in the North End of Hartford through our partnership with our friends at The Hartford Catholic Worker. That means with your financial support we are providing dinners to 112 people (primarily children) every Monday. We will keep this going as long as we can – with no end in sight.

Angel Tree 2020 Update

Thank You!

THANKS to the overwhelming generosity of the St. James's family, we made a joyous delivery of over 240 toys and gift certificates to the Hartford Seminary's Spiritual Center. Once again, they are working with a network of social service providers to deliver toys to area children of all ages, who would otherwise have gone without.

In spite of COVID complications, we saw record-breaking participation this year. Here's just a small glimpse of the totals: 31 dolls, 26 sets of blocks, 29 activity sets, 24 pre-school toys, 18 board games, 12 puzzles, 14 trucks, and 34 stuffed animals, including 8 adorable Baby Yoda's :-)

THANK YOU to everyone who shopped our Amazon Wish List, dropped off a toy at the church, or sent in a monetary donation. Each of you has helped to bring some happiness to a family in need.

Food Pantry Ongoing Needs

The WH Food Pantry is currently in need of many items. For more information on how you can help support the members of our community who have been most affected by the pandemic, visit their website at: https://www.westhartfordct.gov/gov/departments/social_services/food_pantry.asp. Your may also continue to drop of food items at the cloister entrance to the church.

Moving Forward Update

We continue to make plans for indoor worship together when it is safe to do so. This reminder update is meant to give you an idea of what is happening now, and what might happen next.

WORK continues to bring the St. James's community together in whatever ways are possible both now and into the future. Our driving goal is to provide for the spiritual life of all parishioners. We are now livestreaming worship services every Sunday at 9:30am, and Priscilla Hooper is leading a children's virtual service via Zoom at 10:30am. Morning Prayer is also available each Wednesday at 8am with the Rev. Tim O'Leary. Links are made available in weekly emails or by going to the website. Click the Discipleship tab then Morning Prayer via Zoom. This schedule will continue until we have the ability to resume CDC-regulated in-person services when that becomes safe. Once we do resume in-person services, we will continue to live stream services. This means anyone who cannot physically attend church for any reason will always be able to participate.
